

PEAC Review 2019

‘Student as Partners’ –

IMU Foundation Medical Clinic

Ms Carmen Ching & Mr Gan Soon Jian
(Semester 4, MBBS, School of Medicine)

Ms Wong Yee Hua

(Semester 5, School of Pharmacy)

Dr Sasikala Devi Amirthalingam

(School of Medicine/Family Medicine Dept.)

International Medical University

INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL UNIVERSITY
MALAYSIA

IMU Foundation Medical Clinic

- Collaboration between IMU and Kechara Soup Kitchen, an NGO that feeds the homeless and urban poor
- IMU Foundation Medical Clinic:
  - licensed clinic under Ministry of Health situated in the Kechara Soup Kitchen premises
  - services started on 12th March , 2019
  - provides medical and pharmacy services to the homeless and urban poor

Students as partners

- Change agents - students as partners in medical education, positions students as change agents who share responsibility for learning and teaching
- Work ready - current trends in medical education strive to enable students to be work ready to meet challenges of working in the real world

Student involvement

- Community service and medical volunteerism
- Inculcating the spirit of volunteerism

